

Lib. C. B. ter being told by his Excellency that he was informed through his means M<sup>r</sup> Jonathan White was thrust out of his pulpett
 p. 25 in King & Queens Parish and M<sup>r</sup> Peirce Bodmin alias Gerrard introduced thereinto, he Denys that he has since cautioned by his Excellency had any thing to Say to the said Gerrard, & is cautioned that as a Vestryman he do not refuse to pay M<sup>r</sup> White the forty p pole.

Came M<sup>r</sup> George Forster according to So<sup>m</sup>ons and his Excellency telling him that he was sent for to Answer an Information, that notwithstanding that M<sup>r</sup> Henry Gerrard als Peirce Bodmin had been forbidd to Preach or Officiate as a Minister of the Church of England in this Province not having any Lord Bishopp of Londons Appointm<sup>t</sup> or Lycence so to do yet he had in his Parish Church Read or Declared that the said Gerrard had fully Proved his Orders before the Governour and Councill and Suffered him to preach in his Pulpett in Contempt of the Government. M<sup>r</sup> fforster says he only said that M<sup>r</sup> Gerrard had proved his Orders before M<sup>r</sup> Cheseldyn and M<sup>r</sup> Greenfield And he must tell his Excelly that tho he was Patron, yet he had no Spirituall power. To which his Excellency replied he knew not any pretended thereto. And that he was called to Answer to Another Matter his contempt of the Government, and the said M<sup>r</sup> Foster talking very confidently & Impertinently the Councill Desired him to take care of his Tongue as well as his Actions, this not being the
 p. 26 only complaint ag<sup>t</sup> him; for that he is charged for marrying people without Lycence. And the Attorney Generall Ordered to prosecute him for the Breach of the Law therein, after which he was desired to withdraw And the Boarde having considered his rude distracted behaviour And Language Resolve that at present he be reprimanded and cautioned to take care of his Actions for the future; but now dismiss as not capable of good councill or reproofe, he was called in and received the said Reprimand.

Came Coll Beale and brought a Strange Indian and Says that his Son who Com<sup>mands</sup> the Rangers had been out & past a greate Circumference; having left two Rangers at Gunns house who when they came in were asked if they had killed any Deere and said they would goe out and See, when two of them not above two hundred yards from the house rising the Hill they came just upon this Indian which they tooke and Charles Beale disarmed & carryed him to Coll Addison. The Indian being asked whence he was and Desired to Answer in french Pretended he had forgott most of that Language and seemed unwilling to Speake in it but Spoke Indian and by the Interpreter Indian Robin said his name was Nicholas & was a Seneka Indian, was asked how he Came by the
